

Queen's College Old Boys' Association Secondary School
Diversity Learning Grant (Other Learning Programmes) 2018/19 Report

Report	Evaluation
1. “Train Your Brain” English workshop <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - 3 classes of 8-session English writing workshops were held during July 2018 and August 2018. - The programme content included training on brainstorming, skills building on sentence patterns and paragraphing, and practices on essay writing. - Altogether 30 highly motivated learners of English from S.4 and S.5 attended. - Expenditure: $9,600 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Students were satisfied with the programme. Responses of the post-course survey are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● 87% of the students agreed that the teacher was well-prepared and was able to answer students’ questions clearly. ● 83% of the students agreed that the lessons help them develop their writing and critical thinking skills. ● 80% of the students agreed that their English have improved after taking the lessons.
2. Magical English” workshop <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - 2 classes of 5-session “learning magic through English” workshop was held during September 2018 and November 2018. - The programme content included learning skills on performing magic tricks in public, learning English through conducting magic performance and enhancing self-confidence. - Altogether 20 highly motivated learners of English from S.4 attended. - Expenditure: $6,900 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Students were highly satisfied with the programme. Responses of the post-course survey are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● 95% of the students agreed that their confidence in speaking in English increased. ● 100% of the students agreed that they learned some basic effects of magic and developed practical skills in performing magic. ● 85% of the students agreed that the practice on speaking in front of others and telling stories in English were useful. ● 95% of the students were satisfied with the workshop.

Balance: $84,000